Anita L. Archer, Ph.D., serves as an educational consultant to school districts on explicit instruction and literacy instruction. She has taught elementary and middle school students and is the recipient of ten Outstanding Educator awards. Dr. Archer has served on the faculties of San Diego State University, the University of Washington, and the University of Oregon. She is nationally known for her presentations and publications on instructional procedures and literacy instruction and has co-authored numerous instruction materials with Dr. Mary Gleason and, most recently, a textbook on explicit instruction with Dr. Charles Hughes.

Bambi Lockman, has been Chief of the Bureau of Exceptional Education and Student Services in the Florida Department of Education since 2004. She is responsible for Florida's implementation and general supervision of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA 2004), coordinating Florida's State Performance Plan and Annual Performance Report, and managing the distribution of IDEA Part B and Part B Preschool grants. Ms. Lockman provides leadership in numerous PreK–12 statewide initiatives and oversees an array of discretionary projects. She has been instrumental in Florida's implementation of the Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS) and postsecondary programs for students with significant cognitive disabilities.

In 2007, Ms. Lockman was appointed to the Governor's Commission on Disabilities and was re-commissioned in 2008. She was appointed to the Governor's Task Force on Autism Spectrum Disorders in 2008 and reappointed in 2009. She serves on numerous other boards and councils and is currently the President of the National Association of State Directors of Special Education (NASDSE).

Ms. Lockman is committed to collaborative partnerships among families, school district personnel, and agency representatives to ensure that Florida's educational programs meet the needs of ALL students. She facilitates the State Advisory Committee for the Education of Exceptional Students (SAC) and makes frequent presentations to legislators, instructional leaders, agency partners, and parents.

Ms. Lockman was awarded an honorary Doctor of Laws degree in 2011 from Beacon College. In 2009 she received the Journey of Dreams, Education Leadership Award from Parent to Parent of Miami for her leadership and vision to ensure educational success for children with disabilities.

Before joining the Bureau, Ms. Lockman had extensive experience at the classroom, school, and district levels in the Santa Rosa School District including serving as director of exceptional student education and student services.

Mark Shinn, Ph.D., is Professor of School Psychology and Program Director at National Louis University. He also serves as Project Director of the Northern Region of IASPIRE, an OSEP and Illinois State Board of Education project supporting implementation of RTI and EIS. He's a member of the CORE national advisory board and a consultant for the assessment elements for two remedial intervention programs.
